

The End-Time Beast System is Already in Place

by Jeremy James

- controlled demolition -

The Great Reset is coming rapidly into view. Few are prepared for it. Virtually no-one seems to appreciate what is heading our way or how it will impact upon all nations of the earth. In short, it will be Biblical in scope, a true judgment of God upon a sinful, rebellious, and materialistic world.

The sinister cabal that controls the international banking system and the multinational corporations have been planning ‘the Great Reset’ for a long time. This is the name they have given to the sudden, traumatic transformation of the world financial system, where fiat currencies will disappear and traditional legal concepts like ownership and personal property will no longer apply.

We discussed the Great Reset in some detail in a previous paper – ‘The Coming Heist will be Called *The Great Reset’ (#235). We also published a more recent paper on the planned new digital currency – ‘The Online Choke-chain of Financial Control is About to Go Live’ (#307). Readers may like to refer to these again in light of the new information set out in this paper.

Rather than re-examine key elements of the plan, we will launch immediately into a discussion of important recent disclosures about the Great Reset and show how they affect the plan as a whole.

As with some of our recent papers, we are obliged to rely on reports from sources which we are unable to verify. We are sharing the information, subject to this caveat. Readers are asked to weigh the evidence for themselves. However, given what we already know from other, verifiable sources, we are confident that the information we are sharing in this paper is based on real-world developments and cannot be taken lightly.

Why Now? ...Why Not?

The Great Reset could have taken place a few decades ago, but the Luciferian Elite did not have the technology needed to ensure its success. The requisite technology is now in place, the backbone of which is an international computer network, similar to the World Wide Web, which will record, process and store every financial transaction on earth. There will be no 'money' in the conventional sense, other than a digital store of value on the computer system.

This system, it seems, is known to its developers as CSRQ. Naturally, it has taken a good deal of IT expertise to build and test. Such expertise is in short supply and the Elite have been forced to rely on carefully vetted outsiders to develop it. Despite a strict code of confidentiality, a few members of the international development team, who do not share the totalitarian ideals of their employers and who have come realize how the system will actually be used, have been leaking details about its real purpose.

Four Types of Account

Everyone on earth, above a certain (unspecified) age, will have an account on the CSRQ. Their personal account number would appear to be the same as the Bluetooth MAC address which was implanted via the Covid injections (We'll show examples below). There will be 4 types of account:

1. Sovereign

This category is reserved for gold-card members only, namely the Elite and those who have been co-opted in recent years to bring about a New World Order. The public will not be told who these 'Sovereign' members are. In total it is estimated that around 8 million Sovereign accounts have been registered to date.

2. Common

This is the serf category. It will comprise several billion accounts, each holding relevant statistics on the account holder. Anyone with a Common account will be closely tracked and his meagre balance (hardly more than a monthly allowance) will be reduced without warning if he incurs any ‘social credit’ infringements.

3. Restricted

This is a peculiar category which seems to cater for individuals who would ordinarily qualify as ‘Sovereign’ but who have shown signs of waywardness in recent years. Think of former Japanese Prime Minister, Shinzo Abe, who was assassinated recently (by the Elite) because he did not stick closely to the Covid game plan.

4. Quarantined

These accounts are held by dissidents or people under house arrest. In the same way that the ‘Restricted’ fail to qualify for ‘Sovereign’, the ‘Quarantined’ fail to qualify for ‘Common’. This category would appear to cater for those who are being ‘re-educated’ and undergoing corrective therapy. Presumably they will have only a limited time to reform and satisfy the authorities that they are worthy citizens of the new world order. It is doubtful whether any ‘Quarantined’ account would be active for more than three years. Being the least productive of all “useless eaters” they will be terminated.

The Vatican Bank

The Pope recently issued an instruction that all funds held by the Holy See and connected entities should be transferred to the Vatican Bank by end-September 2022. This request has puzzled observers, but it makes complete sense in the context of the information leaked about the CSRQ. Seemingly Sovereign account holders will only receive credit for funds deposited to their account before a given date (presumably a date close to the start of the Great Reset).

4. La Santa Sede e le Istituzioni collegate con la Santa Sede che siano titolari di attività finanziarie e liquidità, in qualunque forma esse siano detenute, presso Istituzioni finanziarie diverse dallo IOR devono informare lo IOR e trasferirle presso di esso appena possibile entro 30 giorni dal 1° settembre 2022.	4. The Holy See and the Institutions connected with the Holy See that are holders of financial assets and liquidity, in whatever form they are held, in financial institutions other than the IOR must inform the IOR and transfer them to it as soon as possible within 30 days from 1 September 2022.
Instruction issued by Pope Francis on 23 August 2022.

RESCRIPTUM EX AUDIENTIA SS.MI

Istruzione sull'Amministrazione e gestione delle attività finanziarie e della liquidità della Santa Sede e delle Istituzioni collegate con la Santa Sede.

1. Il Santo Padre Francesco, nell'udienza concessa al Segretario di Stato, il giorno 22 agosto, ha stabilito di emanare la presente Istruzione sull'amministrazione e gestione delle attività finanziarie e della liquidità della Santa Sede e delle Istituzioni collegate con essa.
2. Il Santo Padre ha disposto che esso abbia natura di interpretazione autentica delle disposizioni vigenti e abbia fermo e stabile vigore, nonostante qualsiasi cosa contraria anche se precedente al Rescritto o specificamente riferita a speciali cose.
3. L'articolo 219, paragrafo 3, della Costituzione Apostolica Praedicate Evangelium, emanata il 19 marzo 2022, deve interpretarsi nel senso che l'attività di gestore patrimoniale e di depositario del patrimonio mobiliare della Santa Sede e delle Istituzioni collegate con la Santa Sede compete in via esclusiva all'Istituto per le Opere di Religione.

Part of the Papal 'Rescript' (instruction) issued on 23 August to the Holy See and connected entities.

Funds placed on deposit will be converted into currency units known as 'Special Drawing Rights' or SDRs. The SDR will become, in effect, the new world currency. Every Sovereign account holder will receive an SDR balance far in excess of the amount that he or she placed on deposit in their fiat currency (Euro, US dollar, etc). Thus someone who put US$50,000 on deposit could receive an SDR balance of ten or twenty times that figure. This is how Sovereign account holders will be rewarded for their services to the New World Order. The capital needed to finance this will be found through the wholesale expropriation of funds held by Common account holders when the banking system collapses.

This is what we meant by the great "heist" in paper #235, the massive transfer of wealth from ordinary citizens into the hands of an elite oligarchical class.

When this happens the Middle Class in all countries will cease to exist. We will be back in the Dark Ages where a small aristocratic class exercised absolute control over a large serf class. The serfs didn't even own the land they cultivated or the cottage they lived in.

Some of our readers may think this would never work. Well, it has already been tried, with great success. In 1993, the Russian people were told that their banking system had collapsed and they had lost all their savings. This was a lie, but they believed it. The state then compensated the masses by giving them free shares in state-owned commodity companies (oil, gas, mining etc). The shares were of little use to the recipients, so they sold them for whatever price they could get. The price, of course, was a fraction of their real worth. Who bought the shares? The oligarchs, of course. So a small elite became the legal owners of assets worth a trillion dollars or more.

The vast sums of fiat money printed since the banking crisis of 2008 – which was a planned event – will ensure that, even if the financial system were to stagger on for a few more years, the inflationary effect of this unprecedented increase in the money supply would cause a great deal of pain. But that pain would be far more tolerable than the suffering which is certain to result from the catastrophe known as the Great Reset.

All fiat currencies will disappear fairly quickly

A currency will automatically lose its value if the banks refuse to accept it. Since there are no real assets supporting the mountain of fiat currencies already in existence, the loss of value will be sudden and traumatic. Anything priced in a fiat currency will also incur a sudden and severe drop in value. Market trading will grind to a halt and stock values will plummet. In fact, the crisis itself may be triggered by a sudden – deliberately engineered – collapse in the stock market, prompting fund managers to transfer as much of their assets into the safest store of value still available. If they all rush into US dollars, then currencies already under strain, such as the euro or the Japanese yen, may slide into oblivion.

A crisis of this kind would normally be addressed by pouring massive amounts of additional liquidity into the banking system. That was how the crisis of 2008 was brought under control. This time the authorities – the Federal Reserve and other central banks – will stand back and allow the crash to run its course. They will do this because they are ready to launch their CSRQ system, based on an international digital currency.

The rich will grow richer... far, far richer

The rich won't suffer because they will already have deposited huge sums in their CSRQ accounts. As Sovereign account holders, they will become even wealthier when the crash occurs. The Common account holders, alas, will see their savings wiped out. This includes pensions, along with shares which cannot be traded because no-one will be able to buy them. Unlike Sovereign account holders, Common account holders have no way of transferring any of their cash into the CSRQ. This means they have no way to prepare for the crisis unless they buy commodities which will continue to be in demand after the crash occurs. However, even traditional stores of value like silver and gold may offer only limited protection because the medium of exchange – cash – will have disappeared.

Universal Basic Income [UBI]

How will governments handle the crisis? The World Bank will at some stage offer to provide everyone with a modest living allowance. This will mark a considerable fall in income for virtually everyone, providing only enough to meet basic needs. What is more, the 'universal basic income' (as it is sometimes called) will only be available through the CSRQ and will be subject to a set of coercive conditions (which we will discuss shortly).

There is reason to believe that owners of mortgage-free homes will be obliged to surrender title to all personal property, including one's home, before they can qualify for the UBI. It is not clear what arguments will be used to justify this, or what laws will be invoked, but there is no doubt that all property, domestic or commercial, will come under direct state control. The continued existence of inviolable property rights would only encourage pockets of resistance to develop, in tandem with a barter economy. Bartering itself may become illegal, possibly on the grounds that it could facilitate criminal activity, rather like money-laundering.

The World Economic Forum has brazenly boasted that, when the 'Great Reset' occurs, you will own nothing. They mean that literally. They like to add, mockingly, "and you'll be happy."

How long will the transition take?

How much time will elapse between the break up of the existing system and the full-scale operation of the new one? This is hard to say. The Elite want the masses to suffer, not only to break their spirit and bring them into subjection, but to get them to the point where they will demand the radical changes that the Elite have already prepared. Possible 'solutions' will be tossed back and forth in the media, shaping public opinion and convincing the masses that there is really only one answer, namely the radical package of reforms proposed by the World Bank and the World Economic Forum.

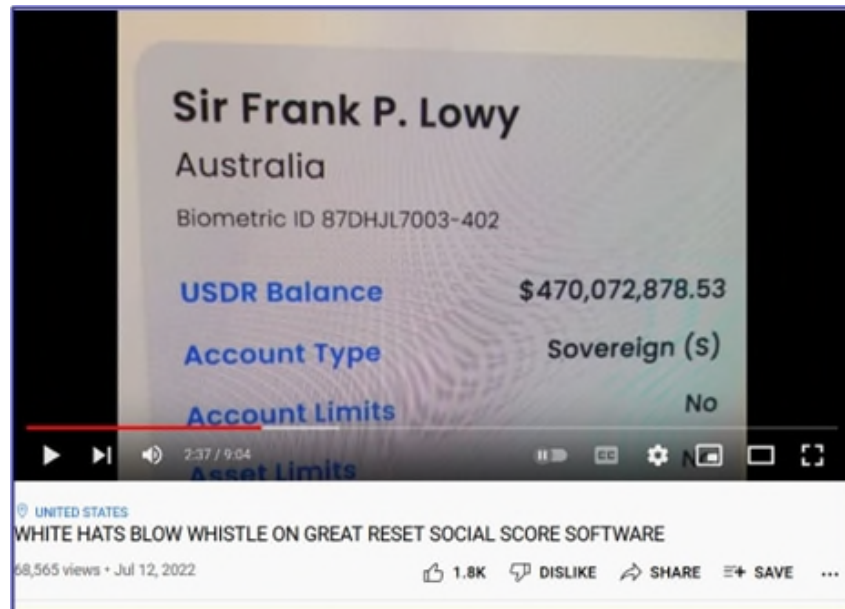

As strange as it may seem, the vast majority of people will accept the vaccines, the social credit and carbon scoring systems, the loss of private property, the elimination of cash, and the tyranny of perpetual online surveillance with all that it entails if it means they can feed their family, heat their home, and get back to 'normal' – albeit the new normal where the state controls everything.

No doubt the masses will also be gulled with the glorious promise of a bright and prosperous future once "everything settles down." They will believe it because they will gladly grasp at anything that offers some hope for the future. The Elite may also make psychotropic drugs freely available to placate the masses and enable them to blank out the harshness of their existence for a few hours a day. Those who fail to maintain a minimum social credit rating may lose their ration for a period of time. Overall, we will witness social control and mental conditioning of the most cunning and oppressive kind.

Satan wants people to voluntarily enter his 'kingdom' and accept his 'son' (the Antichrist). Anyone who refuses to do so will be executed.

Sample screenshots of some Sovereign accounts

The whistleblowers took screenshots of accounts on the CSRQ to show how they work:

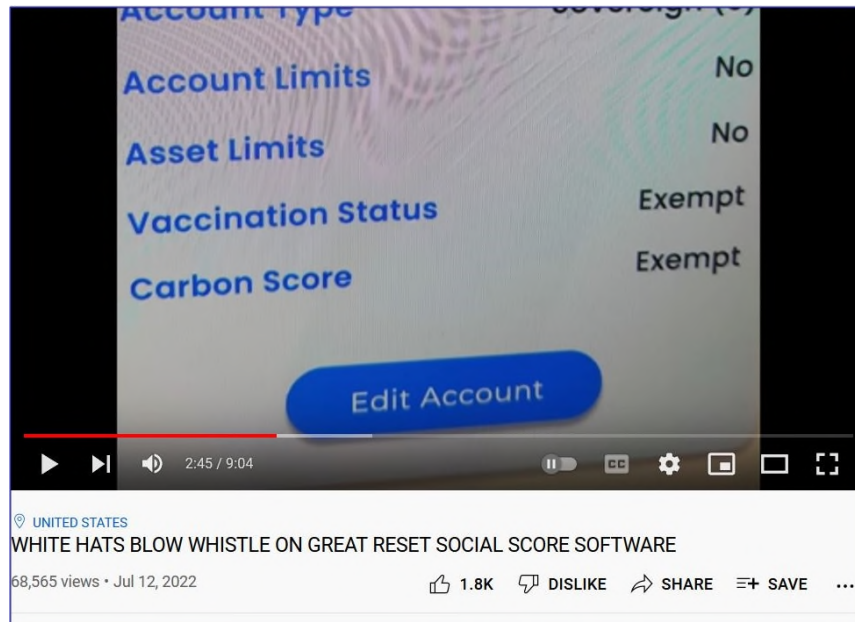

This shows account details for Sir Frank P Lowy, founder of Westfield Corporation, which specializes in developing premier retail infrastructure such as shopping malls. Lowy, now aged 91, is based in Australia and is estimated to have assets worth over $8 billion. We can see from this screenshot that he has a Sovereign account (naturally), with no account or asset limits. This means he can accumulate as much wealth as he likes under the new system.

His unique biometric ID is 87DHJL7003-402. This does not perfectly match the format of Bluetooth MAC codes but it gets close (See example below, taken from a standard Internet device, in this instance a MacBook Pro. For a more detailed discussion of Bluetooth see our paper #295). Clearly, the Sovereign account holders are willing to be tracked in this way, presumably for identification purposes and to monitor their safety and security.

Lowy has an existing SDR balance of $470 million, an astonishing sum. But this will be greatly multiplied when the system goes live. By the way, Sovereign account holders will continue to retain ownership of their capital assets – though you probably guessed that!

This screenshot shows that account holders will be given a ‘Vaccination Status’ and a ‘Carbon Score’. Lowy is ‘Exempt’ from both of these requirements.

The inclusion of Vaccination Status is evidence that participation in the new system will require account holders – in the Common category – to receive a certain number of ‘vaccine’ injections. Those who fall behind will probably incur a penalty of some kind or face removal from the system.

This is proof that the Covid vaccines are part of the plot to enslave humanity. Sovereigns won’t take them and won’t need them because there is no virus. The masses, however, will continue to be told that a deadly virus threatens their survival and that they must take these pernicious ‘vaccines’ to protect themselves.

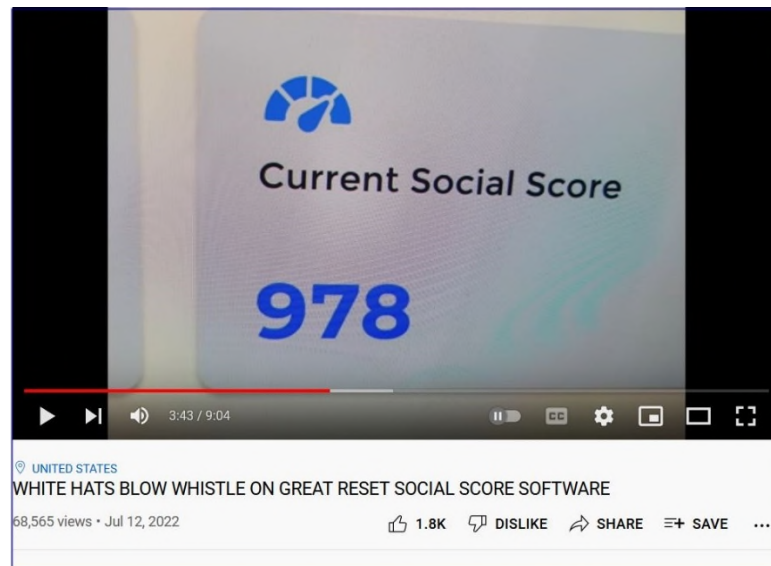

The ‘carbon footprint’

Conduct deemed incompatible with the ‘Green’ standards set by the authorities will result in points being deducted from one’s “Carbon Score” (See screenshot above). Account holders who fall below a designated threshold will lose certain privileges. For example, attendance at a beach party where a fire was lit could result in the loss of a bundle of points by everyone in attendance (The GSRQ will be able to identify everyone who attended). Wood-burning, we are told, produces dangerous greenhouse gases, and anyone who dares to indulge in such extravagance will be punished.

The so-called carbon score is simply another cynical device to control human behavior. There are no carbon footprints, just leather jackboots.

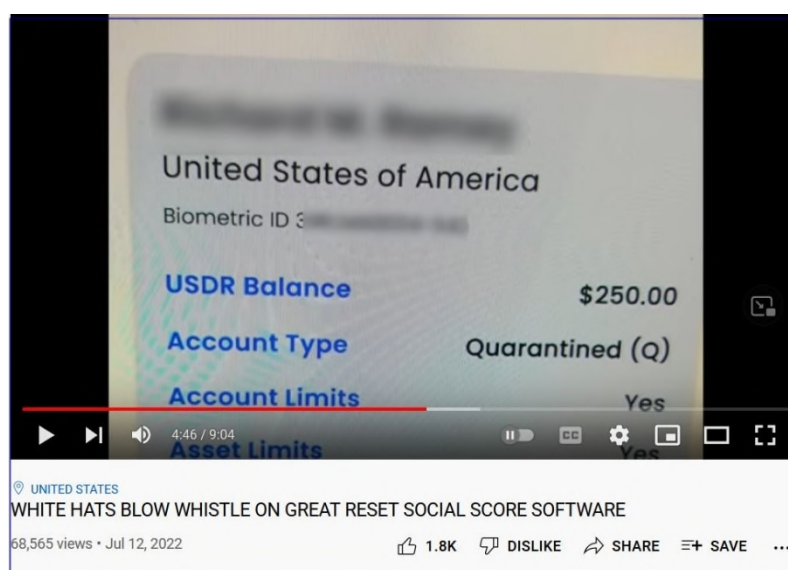

The devil's Social Score

The system also includes a “Social Score”:

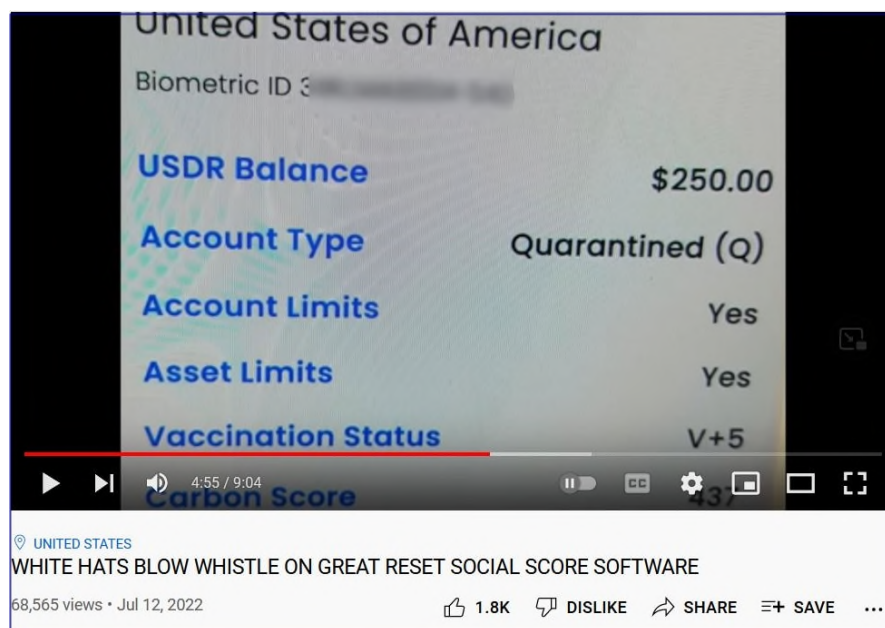

This is similar to the existing Chinese ‘Social Credit’ system, where the activities of 600 million citizens (and possibly many more) are tracked online, 24/7. The more closely a person adheres to the rigorous code of behavior set by the state, the more points they will receive. On the other hand, participation in activities which are not viewed with favor by the state will result in a loss of points. A consistently low Social Score could result in a fine, details of which will also be included in Common accounts.

Everyone on earth will be tracked by the system and subjected continuously to online surveillance. Their behavior will be continuously evaluated by AI algorithms to determine whether the individual is showing dissident tendencies. If so, he or she could be removed from the Common category and placed in the Quarantined category:

This Account Type (“Quarantined”) very likely includes the 1.5 million people currently incarcerated in the United States. The subject in this instance has been assigned $250, which may comprise his initial UBI balance. The sum in question will not increase when the system goes live since this person is not in the Sovereign category. The amount itself is an indication of how little monthly income non-Sovereigns will have to meet their basic needs. The Elite will stick rigidly to the ‘Iron Law of Wages’, formulated by David Ricardo. This will ensure that workers will never be paid more than they need to survive at subsistence level.

The following screenshot shows a value – “V+5” – for Vaccination Status. This may refer to the number of injections the person has already received. It also gives a value – 437 – for his Carbon Score:

Some examples of Sovereign account holders

According to the whistleblowers, the Sovereign account holders will be graded within the Sovereign class by reference to their existing wealth under the current system. They checked a number of well-known public figures to see whether they were Sovereign. Boris Johnson, Emmanuel Macron and Angela Merkel were all ‘Sovereign’, as were ‘conservative’ commentators like Tucker Carlson and Glenn Beck (the controlled opposition).

See Appendix A for screenshots.

It would appear that every country on earth has signed up to the new system, but some were reluctant to do so initially until they were guaranteed a better deal. Here is what the whistleblower, ‘Gideon’, said about India:

“India was given a lot of promises, now they’re on board. They weren’t at first. Lots of pieces had to be moved around to get them on board, now they are. For all their nationalism, they [their leaders] didn’t care at all about the people, all they cared about was that their particular caste system was going to stay in place and their wealthy citizens were going to be Sovereigns. It turns out a lot were going to get moved to Common and they were furious about it. It was sorted out.”

CONCLUSION

The date fixed for the commencement of the socio-economic revolution known as The Great Reset would appear to be very close.

The information released by the whistleblowers, at great risk to themselves, confirms that the Elite have planned a future for all mankind which matches very closely the one described in the Book of Revelation. The ‘Beast system’ will track all humanity and will likely require, before very long, that everyone be implanted with a special microchip device to ensure that they can never escape its non-stop surveillance. The microchip may also include sophisticated features which enable the ‘Beast’ to directly influence human behavior. If so, then the “mark of the beast” will connect all humanity to a hive-like mind which is capable of controlling populations through subliminal impulses and moving the ‘herd’ as the Master, the Antichrist, decrees.

The period of transition will involve immense social trauma. Civil unrest will escalate to a level we never thought possible. Mass starvation, especially in urban areas, appears inevitable. The Sovereigns will make sure they are far from the scene when the public erupts. Some, it would seem, have bought secure underground bunkers in undisclosed locations, well stocked with everything they need to live comfortably until the upheaval subsides. Others, presumably those in the billionaire class, will fly to their chalets in remote locations, such as the South Pacific, and watch the show unfold on their high-definition television screens.

We don’t want to dwell on the suffering that this will entail. Even after writing about these coming events for the past 14 years, we are still unable to comprehend fully how something so dreadful and so callous could be planned and carried out by any group of people.

We need to remind ourselves that the real mastermind behind all of this is Satan himself. His earthly servants – in particular the eight million Sovereign account holders – have entered into a covenant with him and allowed his army of demons to infect their minds and hearts.

The LORD has assured us that this ghastly plan will come to nothing. The Antichrist will have his predetermined reign of terror – we are certain of that – but just when he is certain that victory is within his grasp, Jesus Our Lord will return to the earth and annihilate him and all his forces.

The earth will never have to go through anything like it again.

Jesus will set up his millennium kingdom, appointing rulers – serving under his authority – to administer every inhabited region of the earth. He will inaugurate an era of true righteousness, peace and justice. He will also take incredible measures to heal the land and the sea and restore the earth to its former glory.

After a thousand years of his wonderful leadership, the world will be ready for the great transformation which our Heavenly Father has prepared.

We would urge our readers to study the Book of Revelation over and over again, even if they think they know it really well already. Refer also, with great regularity, to the many prophetic passages found elsewhere in God's Word which describe the End Time. We may have read them in times past through the eyes of the Lamb, but we will see more deeply into their purpose if we bear in mind that Jesus, our Savior, will descend as a Lion, not a Lamb, on the Mount of Olives.

“...he shall eat up the nations his enemies,
and shall break their bones,
and pierce them through with his arrows.
He couched, he lay down as a lion,
and as a great lion:
who shall stir him up?”
- Numbers 24:8-9
